Durango Mountain Resort:

Snowboarding and Skiing – Snowboarders will receive snowboards, boots, helmet and a full day lift ticket. Skiers will receive skis, poles, boots, helmet and a full day lift ticket. After receiving their gear, those not experienced, will receive introduction lessons before being released for the day to snowboard/ski at their leisure. There will be a lounge area to keep your belongings and lockers are available to rent.

Nordic Center at Purgatory:

XC Skiing – Students will receive skis, poles, and boots. If lessons are necessary, staff will be available. After receiving gear, participants will be free to explore the miles of trails.

Snowshoeing – Students will receive their snowshoes; poles can also be issued upon request. After receiving gear, participants will be released to explore the trails or make their own trail within the area.

Durango Recreation Center:

Students will receive a quick tour, along with instructions on proper etiquette in the various areas. After the tour students will have the option to be active anywhere inside the facility, which offers a gymnasium, weight room (16 yrs or older), olympic lap pool with diving boards, a jacuzzi, a sauna and a whirlpool, racquetball courts, an indoor track and a rock climbing wall. After the rec center, students will return to NPS campus for group fitness options.

- Students must have ID to check out equipment
- Students must provide their own towel(s)

Proper Attire

Snowboarding, Downhill Skiing, XC Skiing and Snow Shoeing:

- Students are strongly encouraged to not wear cotton clothing.
- Wool or water wicking under layers is preferred.
- Snow Pants and Jackets that are waterproof and breathable would be ideal to wear over under layers.
- Beanies or caps can be worn, as long as they do not excessively interfere with issued helmet.
- Gloves that are waterproof would be beneficial for participants.
- Sunglasses, polarized are best, would help reduce glare from the snow.
- SNOWSHOERS should wear hiking boots that are waterproof.

Durango Recreation Center

- Appropriate shoes for the gymnasium and weight room are required (basketball shoes, tennis shoes or fitness shoes).
- Gym shorts or gym pants that you can move freely in are required.
- T-Shirts and tank tops that are not too revealing are acceptable.
- Swimwear must be appropriate and not too revealing.
- If showering or using the pool, you must bring your own towel and shower shoes.
- Bring comfortable clothes to change into afterwards to participate in fitness activity on campus.
