Leaders Now And Into the Future "Yideesk33g00 Naat'1anii"

July 29, 2019

Dear Student and Parent/Guardian,

Welcome to the Navajo Preparatory School. We hope you are excited to start a new year of learning, growth opportunities and an experience that will prepare you for your next phase of your education. New student orientation is set for August 4th through 6th. Included in this letter is a list of what to bring for your stay during orientation and the names of the residential halls you will be staying in for these three days.

Parents/Guardians will arrive on campus for check in on Sunday, August 4, beginning at 2:00pm. Various stations will be set up to assist with the completion of the registration process and to provide information that is important for you and your student. One important change in the registration process is the issuing of laptops to all our students. There is a $35 insurance fee for the laptop, which can be charged to your account or you can pay onsite. There will be an assembly for everyone in the Eagle's Nest starting at 4:00pm. We recommend bringing a pen and notebook to jot down items of interest. This will be followed by dinner for all of the attendees. If your student is interested in joining the NPS Football program, you are welcome to attend a football meeting that will be taking place during the dinner hour and to meet the athletic staff.

What to bring

- Clothes appropriate for learning
(Refer to attached copy of dress expectation from the NPS Handbook)
- Sleepwear
- Swimsuit and towel
- Shower shoes
- Twin Sized bedding (Sheets, blanket and pillow) or Sleeping Bag
- Personal toiletries
- Water bottle
- Medication in their original container
- Sunscreen/Sunglasses
- Small electric fan
- Money for trip to Wal-Mart
- 2 Padlocks
- Pen and notebook

Do not bring
