- Families may apply for IB Scholarships to Navajo Preparatory School. This process is separate from the school's application and student fees. Scholarship applications will go out during the spring of the student's junior year.

SECTION D: APPLICATION ESSAY

Along with rigorous academics, the IB Organization emphasizes a set of ten traits, which comprise of the IB Learner Profile. According to the IB Learner Profile, IB learners strive to become inquirers, knowledgeable, thinkers, communicators, principled, open-minded, caring, risk-takers, balanced and reflective. Please select one or two of these traits and discuss how those characteristics relate to you as a learner and to your expectations of education. Your essay should be a 250 to 300-word sample of your best work.

SECTION E: POLICIES

Download and read/review the following (emailed to student's account):

1. General Regulations: IB Diploma Programme (Parent and student understand and abide by Article 6: Property and copyright in materials produced by candidates in the General Regulations.)
2. Academic Honesty Policy

SECTION F: PLANNED COURSE SELECTIONS

Complete the planned course selection by checking appropriate boxes. If you are currently enrolled in an IB course, under class selection put Y2 to register for the second year of that course or write completed across the lines if you have already taken complete course. The classes you choose will not be guaranteed, however, this is to notify the IB Coordinator of classes that interest you. A class from each group is required; the only exception is taking two classes from group 4 in place of one from group 6. A minimum of 3 Higher Level and 3 Standard Level is required.
